ASPEN SANTA FE BALLET ANNOUNCES 2018 SUMMER PERFORMANCE SERIES IN SANTA FE, NM

One-Night-Only Performances by Pilobolus & Nrityagram
World Premiere Ballet by Bryan Arias • Company Premiere of Alexander Ekman's Tuptlet

With multiple company premieres and performances by two popular guest companies, Aspen Santa Fe Ballet brings a strong line-up to Santa Fe for the 2018 summer season. Aspen Santa Fe Ballet opens the summer with a one-night-only performance that features a world premiere by Bryan Arias, a company premiere of Alexander Ekman's Tuptlet, and the return of Jiri Kylian's Sleepless (July 14).

Formerly a dancer with Nederlands Dans Theater and Kidd Pivot, Bryan Arias is rapidly emerging as an in-demand choreographic voice, receiving the 2017 Princess Grace Choreography Fellowship Award. To date, the majority of this Puerto-Rican born, New York native's work has taken place in Europe and ASFB is thrilled to be among the very first companies in the United States to commission a new ballet.

Swedish choreographer Alexander Ekman's Tuptlet is a swift, pulsating, eighteen-minute tour-de-force that explores the question, what is rhythm? Utilizing a score that employs the dancers' bodies as percussion instruments, the soundscape is integrated with jazz and original electronic music. The composition bounces back and forth between the live body sounds of the dancers and the recorded score in combinations of irrational rhythms and groupings, to stunning visual and aural effect.

Aspen Santa Fe Ballet presents an encore of this winter's milestone collaborative project with award-winning pianist Joyce Yang (Sept. 1). Featuring Half/Cut/Split, the new ballet set to the music of Schumann's Carnaval by the noted Finnish choreographer, Jorma Elo, Yang will be on stage the entire evening in a thrilling fusion of dance and live music. Also on the program are master choreographer Jiří Kylián's Return to a Strange Land set to the music of Leoš Janáček, and Nicolo Fonte's Where We Left Off with music by Philip Glass.

ASFB Presents the return of audience favorites Pilobolus (July 24) and classical Indian dance company Nrityagram (Sept. 27). Take the most diverse and impactful elements of Pilobolus - some old, and some brand new -- and assemble them into an evening of repertoire that will take audiences on a journey from a community of lost souls to competitions in the animal kingdom. In a magnificent blending of cultures, India's acclaimed Nrityagram Dance Ensemble arrives in Santa Fe with Chitrasena Dance Company from Sri Lanka to present Samhāra. Performed with live instrumentalists and singers, the fusion of Odissi, a classical Indian dance, with the Kandyan dance that is traditional to Sri Lanka melds together two ancient and elegant dance forms.

Tickets for all summer series performances go on sale to the public on Wednesday, May 16.

Tickets will be available online at www.aspensantafeballet.com; by phone through Tickets Santa Fe at 505-988-1234; or in person at The Lensic Performing Arts Center box office located at 211 W. San Francisco St. Ticket prices range from $36-$94.

All performances take place at The Lensic, Santa Fe's Performing Arts Center (211 W. San Francisco St.).

Ticket prices and programs subject to change.

CALENDAR OF EVENTS

Aspen Santa Fe Ballet

Saturday, July 14

8pm

Start your summer of dance off on the right foot with an unforgettable evening of contemporary ballet featuring a world premiere by rising star choreographer Bryan Arias in his ASFB debut. Exploring the interplay between rhythms both human-made and from jazz, ASFB's company premiere of Swedish phenom Alexander Ekman's Tuplet is deft, multi-media entertainment. Master dancemaker Jiří Kylián's stark and mysterious Sleepless explores the thin line between the conscious and subconscious. Be there when three clever choreographic voices come together in one magical evening!

"Aspen Santa Fe Ballet is ready for its Hollywood close-up." – Los Angeles Times

Pilobolus

Tuesday, July 24

8pm

Continually testing the limits of human physicality, the internationally recognized troupe Pilobolus brings an evening of repertoire to Santa Fe that reveals just how diverse and surprising its work can be. Part Darwinian investigation, part love story, Symbiosis sweeps viewers away in an emotional duet. In Rushes, journey to what the Los Angeles Times called "a Fellini-esque carnival." Whether exploring the competition between animals in Branches, to classic Pilobolus feats of strength in Gnomen, prepare to be amazed!

"Pilobolus embodied a large part of what the best in contemporary dance is all about: discovery." – The Washington Post

Aspen Santa Fe Ballet: An Evening with Pianist Joyce Yang

Saturday, September 1

8pm

Enjoy a special encore performance of this milestone evening of live piano and dance that wowed sold-out audiences in its winter premiere! At the center of this program is the world-renowned pianist Joyce Yang, a Van Cliburn International Piano Competition silver medalist. ASFB tackles the quirky Half/Cut/Split by noted Finnish choreographer Jorma Elo, who collaborated with Yang to bring Robert Schumann's Carnaval to life. Also on the program are Jiří Kylián's poetic Return to a Strange Land set to the music of Leoš Janáček, and Nicolò Fonte's enthralling Where We Left Off with music by Philip Glass.

“[Yang's] attention to detail and clarity is as impressive as her agility, balance and velocity.” – The Washington Post

Nrityagram Dance Ensemble

Thursday, September 27

8pm

In a magnificent blending of cultures, India's acclaimed Nrityagram Dance Ensemble presents its stunning collaboration with Chitrasena Dance Company from Sri Lanka: Samhāra. Performed with live instrumentalists and singers, this fusion of Odissi, a classical Indian dance, with Kandyan, a dance traditional to Sri Lanka, melds together two ancient and elegant art forms. Be carried away to South Asia in this transformative evening!

“Of the Indian dance I have encountered, I have never been so dazzled or so moved!”

Aspen Santa Fe Ballet

Aspen Santa Fe Ballet's bold vision – top global choreographers, distinctive groundbreaking works, and virtuoso dancers – has fostered a jewel of a dance company in the American West and beyond. ASFB's unique pioneering spirit arises from a paired set of home cities: Aspen, nestled high in the Rocky Mountains, and Santa Fe, gracing the majestic Southwestern plateau.

Since its founding in 1996 by Bebe Schweppe, the company has served as a prestigious incubator and a showcase for choreographic invention to popular and critical acclaim. The performing troupe forms the core of a multifaceted arts organization with activities in both Aspen and Santa Fe. Repeat engagements at the Joyce Theater, Jacob's Pillow Dance Festival, Kennedy Center, Wolf Trap Center for the Performing Arts, the American Dance Festival and the Harris Theater for Music and Dance have built a national reputation. The company has also toured internationally to Brazil, Canada, France, Greece, Guatemala, Israel and Italy.

A respected arts presenter, ASFB curates high-quality dance programming for home audiences. Dance education is a priority, with well-established ballet schools training children and adults in both markets. An outreach program steeped in Mexico's rich folkloric culture fortifies community connections. Premier funders such as the National Endowment of the Arts, the Joyce Foundation, the Wolf Trap Foundation, Dance St. Louis and The Princess Grace Foundation have supported ASFB's growth. In 2010 the Joyce Theater Foundation conferred upon Artistic Director Tom Mossbrucker and Executive Director Jean-Philippe Malaty the Joyce Theater Award in honor of their pioneering and innovative model for American dance.
