

FINANCIAL AID INFORMATION & APPLICATION ASPEN SANTA FE BALLET SCHOOL

Aspen Santa Fe Ballet is a non-profit organization. Though tuition and ticket sales alone do not cover the cost of our operations, through our fundraising efforts we are able to offer some financial assistance. Our assistance funds are limited, and students seeking aid must meet eligibility requirements established by our Board of Directors.

Applications are due August 15.

Financial aid begins on Sept 1.
Uniforms, costumes, performance fees, and registration fees are not included.

Scholarship students/families should set the standard as role models.

Student requirements:

Students are expected to have excellent attendance.

Students must demonstrate exemplary classroom behavior.

Students are required to participate in all ASFB School performances.

Students may participate as classroom demonstrators if age and ability allow.

Parents of students receiving aid are not required, but may volunteer.

Opportunities include - assistance with bulk mailings/programs, poster & flyer distribution, basic sewing, dressing room chaperone, boutique sales/Nutcracker

Failure to meet either student/parent requirements may result in loss of assistance.
